"Sabbath as Soul Care"

Journaling Reflection and Table Sharing

In what ways has a weekly Sabbath been a part of your life? How has your experience of Sabbath changed over time?

In Scripture, to be holy means to be set apart. So, for example, the furnishings and utensils of the ancient tabernacle were holy, for they were set apart for use in worship. What would a day set apart for rest look like for you?

What challenges do you face that work against taking a day of rest?

"The Soul's Lament"

Poem "reality of 2022" Written & read by Kai Esbenshade

"The Soul and the Fruit of Self-Discipline"

Journaling Reflection and Table Sharing

Some forms of self-care feel better once they're over. We don't enjoy them in the moment, but we're glad that we've done them. What forms of self-care fall into that category for you?
